A SERIES S

CUSTOMER NEEDS AND OUR SOLUTIONS

Customers need a space-saving All-in-One PC with clutter-free cable management

The ThinkCentre® A70z All-in-One PC offers an integrated LCD monitor with a CPU, in a small form factor (62-mm thickness). Neatly managed cables and multiple mounting options save space and give the workspace an elegant, neat, and compact look.

Customers need easy serviceability and upgrading of hard disks and memory

The ThinkCentre A70z All-in-One PC offers easy-to-service features with only two screws to open the chassis and the end user's access to the hard disk and memory allows easy upgrades.

Customers need an elegant and modern-looking workspace

The ThinkCentre A70z All-in-One PC offers a stylish and elegant PC with multiple mounting options that give a modern look to the workspace. The clutter-free cable design maximizes the workspace giving more convenience without compromising on serviceability and productivity.

Customers need an energy-efficient All-in-One PC

The ThinkCentre A70z All-in-One PC is now greener with a 19" W LCD monitor (16:10 ratio) and a Lenovo Power Manager that helps save on electricity. Lenovo offers the All-in-One PC in a reusable shopping bag with less packaging.

Customers need an affordable All-in-One PC

The ThinkCentre A70z All-in-One PC suites the limited budget SMB, without compromising neither the PC's performance nor employee productivity.

Customers need a dynamic working environment

The ThinkCentre A70z All-in-One PC is easy and fast to setup as compared to a traditional desktop and the ergonomic handle allows easy PC portability giving the end-user the advantage of a mobile workspace.

CUSTOMER CHALLENGES AND OUR SOLUTIONS

Customers require easily serviceable All-in-One PCs

The ThinkCentre A70z All-in-One PC is easier to service than the Dell Vostro 320 All-in-One PC, as the chassis can be opened by removing two screws.

Customers require more expandability options for their All-in-One PC

Although, All-in-One PCs have limited expandability options as compared to traditional desktops, the ThinkCentre A70z All-in-One PC offers easy access and upgrade of the hard disk and memory.
